ILLNESS OF THE EMPEROR.

PARIS, August 29.

The Journal officiel announces that the health of the Emperor continues to improve, and his attack of rheumatism is nearly over. The Empress has returned to Paris.

The verdict of the Coroner's Jury in the case of Victor Noir has gone to Tours.

The verdict acquitting Prince Pierre Bonaparte of the murder of Victor Noir, was received with great applause.

IMPORTANT TO MOST OF THE UNITED STATES PEOPLE.

A dispatch conveying the discovery on board the United States frigate Sabine, now lying in the port of Genoa, of a conspiracy to blow up the vessel, destroy the officers, attempted to set fire to the powder magazine, and, after murdering the officers, run away with the vessel, which the plot was reported to be a Spanish boy, with Garcia-like ability for carrying guns. It was found that twenty-two sailors were implicated in the plot, and they were put in irons. Eight were found guilty, and sentenced to death. The sentence was carried out on the yard-arm.

A WAR OVER THE CONVENTS.

BERLIN, August 29.

A meeting of 1,000 persons was held here last night, to consider a series of resolutions favoring the suppression of convents and expulsion of the Jesuits. After a long debate, the resolutions were finally adopted, but a protest was made by the minority. The Republicans are not directed particularly against any convention of faith.

DEATH-BED CONFESSION.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.

NEW YORK, August 30.

RECEPTION TO THE RANGERS.

A call has been issued for the officers of various Irish societies in this city and vicinity to meet this afternoon, to arrange preliminaries for the reception of the Harvard crew. The principal attraction will be a grand procession, for which the individual societies are now making extensive preparations. It is believed that about ten thousand persons will be in the line. The procession will probably be a procession on Broadway, with a carriage for the crew. It is expected that there will be a return match.

BEECHER'S VIEW.

There is considerable talk among sporting men about the time made by Dexter under the saddle on Saturday over the Fashion Course. The time had not been officially announced, and the horse had to go with to get a good track. He made his mile in 2:17¾.

The Fashion Course is managed by Samuel Purdy.

The English papers contain accounts of the murder of Dr. Livingstone, the explorer, by natives between Nyaise and Bemba. But the time is a most unsatisfactory carriage, and supposed to have been made by an officer who was left in charge with her.

PRESENT CONDITION OF ARRANGING PRIZE ARTICLES.

It is understood that the Peruvian Congress contains a majority of members favorable to the Chilian cause. At the session on Saturday one member read a proposition of an Italian corporation to supply Peru with ironclads, and to take Callao. It was voted down unanimously. The member who introduced the proposition said that he did so by the request of a constituent.

CUBAN PATRIOTS.

A party of prisoners, numbering about a dozen, under the charge of boarding to go to Cuba, and who recently rescued, are still quartered in the house of detention, Jackson, and are suspected by benevolent Cubans.

FIRE IN A COAL MINE.

A special dispatch from Pittsburgh, Pa., Gold's of Monongahela, last night, states that late in the afternoon a fire was discovered in the coal mine of that place, and a half dozen men, who were employed in the mine, were cut off from the outside. Efforts were made to rescue them, but the fire was so fierce that they were compelled to desist. The men are supposed to be dead.

The Jacksonville play on Wednesday.

The Macon County Republican have done themselves credit by the selection of Colonel Oglesby as their standard-bearer during the fall campaign. He is a man of whom any true patriot might be proud to vote for. Personally popular, a brave soldier, warm-hearted and generous, a lawyer of ability, a statesman of sagacity, and last, but not least, a Republican, second to none in the State, he is the choice of the people. His election to the Governorship of Illinois, for which he has been nominated, is considered assured.

Several thousand letters were received and forwarded by the Assistant.

The Grand Jury adjourned for 1869-70, 202,000. Increase on assessment of 1868, $24,000; decrease on assessment of 1869, $24,000; decrease

THE MARKET.

A rapid advance in the price of the Coupon 6s of 1881, in spite of the efforts of the Bears to depress them, and the consequent rise in the difference between paying bonds in depreciated paper and redeeming them to a level with gold is the chief feature.

In Europe the disappearance of confidence is manifested in the closing of the Bourses. In making preparations conversible into bonds, the latter are not "subscribed" in the legal sense of the word; on the contrary, the depositors' notes are redeemed in coin to that of bonds drawing six per cent gold interest. It is rather a queer definition of the "full faith and credit of the United States bonds" when the notes are paid in currency, whose value is the market is on a par with that of the bonds, or in currency which has been wilfully depressed by the government itself, or affects, per cent below the par of the bonds.

The report that a "Ring" of the Agents of certain railroads are not to be, say we, confined to the forest of the convertibility clause," the not limiting the deposit of bonds to be in the event of the payment of the interest, is not to be credited. Such a "Ring" would be a fool, as contended for by a portion of the Democrats of the West, for the purchase of 5-20 bonds agreed to receive payment in depreciated paper, for this sum would be immediately lost through a difference in the value of the currency in which the bonds are purchased and that in which they are redeemed, and no other kind contemplated at the time. To deprive the notes of their convertibility into bonds would be to destroy the point of the Solicitor of the Treasury, Mr. Chase. He arrived at the conclusion, by some occult process of reasoning, that the interest of the government would be promoted by the conversion of the 5-20 bonds into currency, which is worthless into 6.30 gold-drawing bonds. The fallacy of that conclusion lies in the fact that with the regal metal he secured, and he then fell in the metallic level of gold.

Still more ridiculous is the notion of some of the Democratic papers that the original terms of the 5-20 bonds not only agreed to accept non-interest, irredeemable notes at par for the bonds after five years, but that they also contracted to receive them with their convertibility quality stricken out, and their purchasing power depreciated to any extent the government may fix it to redeem them. Those who entertain such a notion have a pathetic confidence. They know very well that the public credit can never agreed to do anything so absurd. They know that no man in his senses is any part of the United States will voluntarily demand money on such conditions.

If there was any misunderstanding or contempt exercised or implied between the government and those who loaned it money, it is not to be found in the fact that the latter is not willing to allow their funds to be converted for any kind of money, dollar for dollar, with the value of the bonds, but rather in the fact of the bondholders being required to wait for the payment of their bonds for considerably less than the par of gold; they are also willing to exchange them for legal tenders that are convertible into the 5-20 bonds,—for the premium on gold is that of legal tenders, as was proved by the fact mentioned in the letter of Secretary Boutwell, and at no time since has the premium on gold been so low as during the last few days. Now, if the government is willing to exchange them for legal tenders that are convertible into

ADDRESS TO THE Nervous and Debilitated.

WHOSE SUFFERINGS HAVE BEEN Protracted from Hidden Causes, AND Whose Cases Require Prompt Treatment TO RENDER EXISTENCE DESIRABLE.

If you are suffering, or have suffered from Involuntary Discharges, what effect does it produce upon your general health? Do you feel weak, debilitated, easily tired? Does a little extra exertion produce palpitation of the heart? Does your liver, or urinary organs, or your kidneys, frequently get out of order? Is your urine scanty, dense, high colored, or turbid, or is it ropy or milky? Or does a thick cream rise to the top? Or is a sediment at the bottom after it has stood awhile? Do you have spells of short breathing or dyspepsia? Are your bowels constipated? Do you have spells of dizziness, or rushes of blood to the head? Is your memory leaving you? Is your mind continually dwelling upon this subject? Do you feel dull, listless, nervous, tired of everything, or like? Do you wish to be left alone, to get away from everybody? Does any little thing make you start or jump? Is your sleep broken or restless? Is the love of your sexes brilliant? The bloom on your cheek no longer? Do you enjoy yourself in society as well as you formerly have? Are you easily confused in the presence of others? Do you feel as much confidence in yourself? Are your spirits dull and flagging, often to fits of melancholy? If so, do not lay it to your liver or dyspepsia. Have you restless nights? Your back weak, your knees weak, and every bone in your body tired? Are you afraid this is Dyspepsia or Liver complaint?

Now, reader, self-abuse, whether it be done daily or not, and sexual excess are all capable of producing a train of the distressing organs. The organs of generation, when in perfect health, make the man. Did you think that those dark, distant, mysterious, yet important functions are not always there unless there is the certainty of being undoubtedly, if nevermore, of satisfaction of the heart. They are never silent they cannot conceal it business; they don't bestow out and discouragingly; they are always polite and pleasant in the company of ladies, and look you and them right in the face—none of your downcast looks or any other nonsense about them. I do not mean those who keep the organs inflated by resorting to excess. Those will not only ruin their constitutions, but the those they do business with or for.

How many men, from badly timed shyness, from the effects of self-abuse and excess, have brought about that state of weakness in their organs that has reduced the general system so much as to induce almost every other disease—Ulcers, kidneys, spinal affections, sick-ache, and almost every other form of disease which in reality is but the real cause of the trouble scarcely ever suspected, and here declared for all but the right one.

Diseases of these organs require the use of a diuretic
